Business Editors

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sept. 14, 2001--
GreenHills Ventures, LLC.

-- GreenHills Ventures, LLC. offers small and medium sized companies that suffered from Tuesday's tragic event an opportunity to participate in our Disaster Recovery Services to get businesses up and running immediately and in the most cost-efficient manner

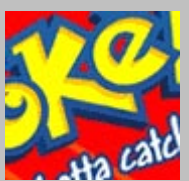

GreenHills Ventures, LLC. regrets Tuesday's tragic and unfortunate incidents that have brought much of our business community to a stand-still.

Unfortunately, it may be months before operations in the financial district are normalized. Right now many businesses are looking for answers on how to be back in business immediately. In the wake of these events it is critical that companies do not lose continued business. It is imperative for the collective psyche and vital for the economy of our country.

To this end, GreenHills Ventures LLC. has brought together strategic business partners to create a one-stop service solution for small and medium sized businesses needing office space, equipment and other related services:

- Our offerings will include:-- Office space
-- Furniture
-- Computer hardware and software leasing (for qualified clients)
-- Hosting, web site design and technical services
-- Lines of credit (for qualified clients)
-- Equity debt financing (for qualified clients)
-- Strategic Consulting Services
-- Early-stage funding (for qualified clients)
-- SBA Qualified Loans

GreenHills Ventures, LLC. services will be provided on a first come, first served basis for companies staying within NYC, Westchester and the outer boroughs.
